From knowing types – to transforming clients.

This is your gateway to serious, in-depth application of the Enneagram in coaching and HR work. This program is not just another training – it's a hands-on lab where you'll learn how to map clients' unconscious patterns, design personal and professional development strategies, and support authentic, lasting transformation.

Key Benefits:

- Practical application of the Enneagram in individual and team coaching
- Designing clear development goals based on a client's type and subtype
- Recognizing patterns of growth and regression in client behavior
- Learning to navigate various communication styles and emotional reactions
- Skills for managing conflict within teams and organizations
- Tools for working with resistance, self-sabotaging behavior, and mindset shifts

What You'll Learn:

- Advanced type diagnostics – how to assess accurately without projecting
- Access to a unique 140+ item Enneagram test for precise client profiling
- Coaching questions by type – how to unlock growth with the right prompts
- Study cases – real-life scenarios from coaching and HR practice
- Working with subtypes – emotional and instinctual variations in coaching
- Addressing boundaries, motivations, and fears specific to each type
- Mapping inter-type relationships – understanding team dynamics
- Designing a complete client development plan through Enneagram profiling

Training Structure:

- Practical coaching simulations in pairs and groups
- In-depth analysis of tests and client profiles
- Interactive workshops for building growth strategies
- Work on real client challenges from your practice
- Supplementary materials: questionnaires, workbooks, scripts, and audio guides
- Integration tasks and optional supervision between modules
